

Travel

The Hotel Seminario Torre d'Aguilha is located 25 km west of Lisbon airport.

Options for getting there from the airport:

A. EurECA taxi

We will offer a special service from the airport to the venue for convenient access, every 1.5 hours. Costs 5 € per person. Takes 20-30 min.

Advantage: Easy and cheap

Disadvantage: You may have to wait an hour or two at the airport, depending on when everybody arrives. Details will be sent to participants once we know more about arrival times.

B. Taxi or Uber

Costs about € 45-70 (Uber half), depending on daytime. Takes about 20-30 min.

Advantage: No waiting at the airport, safe and direct.

Disadvantage: Expensive (depending on the number of passengers)

C. Public transport

Costs about € 5, takes 1h35min-1h50min.

Advantage: Adventurous (!), cheap.

Disadvantage: at least metro, train and bus plus a total of 17-45 min walk.

Easy instruction:

Get the subway at the Airport subway station (red line) to the Alameda subway station.

Change at Alameda subway station to the green line direction Cais do Sodré. At Cais do Sodré subway station take the stairs and follow the sign to Cais do Sodré train station.

Take the train to Cascais and get out in Carcavelos train station. The Seminário Torre da Aguilha Hotel is about 43/45 minutes walking distance from the train station.

You can buy the tickets at a ticket counter or ticket machines, that have menus in several languages. Don't forget to press the receipt key to get a receipt.

It is convenient to buy the pass "zapping" as it can be used in all transports, including the ones in Lisbon (buses, trams, lifts), should you wish to visit. Please be informed that having a non zapping ticket implies buying different tickets for each type of transport.

Prices: You always have to buy a rechargeable card which you charge according to the expected costs: 0.50 €; Single subway ticket (valid for one way): 1.45 € / 1.30 with zapping card; Train ticket from Lisbon to Carcavelos: 1.90€ / 1.85 with zapping card.
